

Cell phone use should be prohibited on airborne aircrafts. It's impossible to not inadvertently eavesdrop on someone's cellphone conversation, particularly since people on cellphones talk louder. It's a nuisance particularly if you are trying to read, relax or do some work. People can wait to make a phone call.